RECOMMENDING COMMITTEE MEETING OF: OCTOBER 16, 2007

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN summarized the Purpose/Background section.

COUNCILMAN BARLOW supported the bill, noting that a restaurant with a liquor license was destroyed by a fire and it took the applicant over three years to go through the insurance process.

CHIEF DEPUTY CITY ATTORNEY STEED recommended an amendment to the proposed bill regarding the language extending the period of time for a special use permit that is not being exercised. The Text Amendment was drafted to apply the increase only to non-alcoholic beverage uses, but the intent was to also include alcoholic beverage uses. Therefore, the provision on Page 3, (2)(a) and (b), would be amended so that it applies to both types of uses.

TED RUSSELL, Las Vegas resident, appeared in support of the proposed bill with the suggested amendment.

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN declared the Public Hearing closed.
